

Law enforcement can help create a Socially Conscious Animal Community by:

- Acting on animal cruelty and neglect complaints

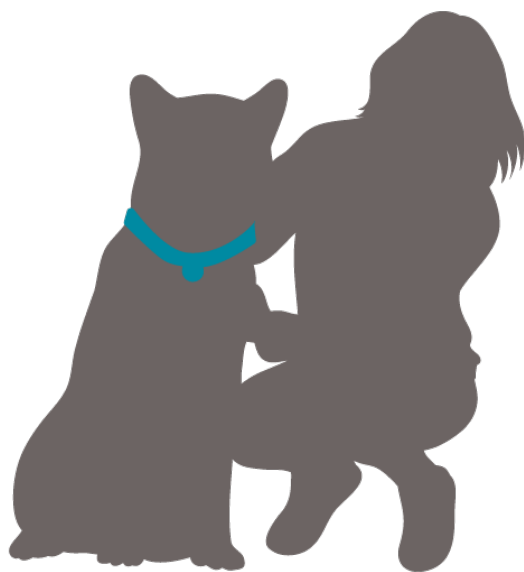

- Partnering with Socially Conscious animal welfare organizations

- Enforcing the unique laws regarding animal investigations

- Supporting healthy relationships between people and pets

- Considering the best outcome for each animal throughout an investigation

- Recognizing the connection between cruelty to animals and violence toward humans

