Policy Makers can help create a Socially Conscious Animal Community by:

- Creating, supporting and defending animal cruelty and neglect laws
- Understanding all consequences of animal legislation
- Investing sufficiently in your community’s animal services programs
- Seeking expertise from trusted animal welfare organizations and professionals
- Recognizing the vital role animal control agencies play in public safety
- Valuing animals
- Understanding that humane communities include healthy relationships between people and pets