

Policy Makers

can help create a Socially Conscious Animal Community by:

Creating, supporting and prosecuting animal cruelty, neglect, and dangerous animal laws

Understanding all consequences of animal legislation

Investing sufficiently in your community's animal services programs

Valuing animals

Seeking expertise from trusted animal welfare organizations and professionals

Understanding that humane communities include healthy relationships between people and pets

Recognizing the vital role animal control agencies play in public safety

Socially Conscious
Animal Community™